

Tiffane Nicol

Tiffane Nicol is a remarkable individual, professional beauty boss, formal celebrity makeup artist, hairstylist and the founder of Style Mobb University (SMU), the first culture-driven HBCU beauty school running an advance training and cosmetology program to help create award-winning beauty and barber professionals. Her achievements in the industry have made her a pacesetter with amazing contributions. Tiffane's SMU was founded after her many years in the beauty industry. After 13 years of owning salon, training cosmetologist and working every position within the beauty salon business, she leveraged the wisdom of her experience to become a Beauty Business entrepreneur.

Tiffane's years of experience as a salon owner and thereafter as a beauty educator in the business management space has guided her steps towards launch the world's first Beauty and Barber Bosses Awards, which for her has been a long time dream right from when she was only 16 and starting out in the industry. Motivated by the desire to become a global expert in her field, she as always diligent and hardworking, always open to growth and development of skill, and never competing with other beauty professionals. Tiffane's biggest desire is to celebrate and bring out the best in others. To this end, she has made a commitment to employ, teach, and manage some of Atlanta's best Nail Techs, Makeup Artists, and hairstylists. Her legacy is almost never-ending in accomplishments.

Researching 10 years of know-how, tact, and finesse, Tiffane has learned the skills in leadership, teamwork, and organization unique to the beauty and cosmetics industry, and now brings them to bear in her work to serve clients. With deep industry knowledge, coupled with an analytical and detail-oriented approach, she is equipped to understand the needs of the most discerning clients, delivering an experience rooted in customer service, integrity, and expertise. Credit to her industry prowess, she has developed a wide client base that ranges from everyday working clients to A-list celebrities and networks such as R-Kelly, Mary Mary, the cast of Love & Hip Hop, Usher, E TV, and the BET Awards among others. Her strong sales and customer services skills make her a keen advocate for her company, proactively seeking out new ways to enhance her services and to continually attain excellence, with client satisfaction the ultimate objective.

As a serial entrepreneur and the first person to have owned the 1st 24-hour hair salon in Atlanta, Diamonds and Pearls Image Studio, Tiffane's worth as a beautician, business manager and cosmetologist is unmatched. Despite all her successes and achievements, she maintains her impressive personal and professional skills. Tiffane Nicol is a natural entrepreneur, lover of the beauty business and a Life & Spiritual Coach by calling. Throughout her services, she makes sure to use effective and efficient communication skills, Listening skills, attention to detail, time management and organization, progressively bringing her best self to the task with a positive attitude and smile in order to get things done. Tiffane's best gift is she brings the best out of others. When she is not working, the exceptional beautician, beauty boss and Certified Life & Spiritual Coach from Atlanta, GA can be found being a mother, enhancing her spiritual gifts and spending time with her family and friends.

@TiffaneNicol

www.TiffaneNicol.com